- Export to 30 countries worldwide
- Turnover 2004: € 40 million

Business planning, budgeting, analysis and reporting worldwide

Professional Planner has shortened the budgeting process at WALA from six weeks to six days.

The time needed for reporting could be reduced from two weeks to one hour.

WALA is the leading provider of products on the basis of rose essential oil. Rose essential oil is a very limited raw material. Turnover directly affects production according to special recipes, i.e. the more products are to be sold, the more have to be produced. Thus the recipes help determining the quantity necessary. Knowing exactly how much raw material is needed, WALA is able to negotiate better purchase conditions and ensure the ability to deliver.

At the moment, WALA secures all rose oil produced worldwide and promotes the biodynamic cultivation of roses (e.g. in Romania, Afghanistan, Iran etc.).

Professional Planner enables WALA to coordinate all operational budgets.
